

Livelihoods Advancement Centre (LAC), Hyderabad

To give employability, life skills and to promote the spirit of entrepreneurship among the under privileged sections of the society.

Livelihoods Advancement Center Project was selected for the Google-Give Program. Nirmaan was among a select 6 NPO's selected across India. Nirmaan had its stall at Google, Hyderabad and promoted various products made by women working in LAC. We raised more than a lakh from Google employees which would be matched by Google.

School Adoption Program (SAP): 'Self-Governance' program initiated by ZPHS, Kothaguda. The task was that all the school activities are managed by students themselves.

What do they say?

Conversations with Nirmaan's stakeholders

- "I used the profits made via project Saakar for buying a candle making machine worth Rs.3000/- . I'm now self sufficient and does not need help from Nirmaan volunteers. I think candle making is an efficient and an easy way of creating temporary employment."
-- Mrs. Yashoda, Project Saakar
- "My husband is an auto driver and his earning is not enough to support our family of 7. When I heard about Nirmaan's Vocational training program, instead of being idle at home I took up tailoring & bag making course and after completing that started working at EDC. Now I am able to earn sufficient money to support education of my 3 daughters. I am very grateful to Nirmaan for the chance that it has provided."
-- Mrs. Fouziya, women working at EDC
- "We are happy to know about competitions and activities in ZPHS. My brother's child is going to Private school. I can't afford, so sending my child to Government school, Kothaguda. But, I think this is better."
-- Parent of Saidulu shared during Home-visits
- "I called VHL & got to know about SCTPC (Stipendiary Cadet Trainee Police Constables) civil posts. I applied & got selected. VHL saved my precious time & money which my family can't afford."
-- Mr. Bhanooth Ramesh, Gudooru, Warangal
