The conclave was a resounding success, reinforcing Nirmaan's commitment to building an inclusive India and driving social impact for all.

Merry Christmas from the Nirmaan Family!

For many children, all they wish for is the chance to go to school, just like every other child. And for their families, the dream is to see their kids thrive and build a brighter future, just like any parent hopes for their child. Yet, for many, these dreams are still a distant reality.

Let's also extend the gift of education to those who need it most.
